HISTORY

A SACRED CULTURAL LEGACY SINCE 1944

Founded in 1944 by visionary Jimmy McKee, the Excelsior Club became a sanctuary for African Americans during the era of segregation. Nestled in the heart of Washington Heights, it served as a gathering space for artists, activists, and leaders—hosting jazz greats, civil rights icons, and generations of Charlotte's Black community.

Its closure in 2016 marked the end of an era. Now, through thoughtful redevelopment, we are restoring its purpose while reimagining its role in the future of the city.

BUSINESS VISION

WE ARE DEVELOPING MORE THAN A PROJECT - WE ARE PERPETUATING A LEGACY

Our vision is rooted in preserving the soul of the Excelsior while activating its potential as a catalyst for renewal. This is development with a conscience—prioritizing impact over profit, and community over displacement.

WE ARE COMMITTED TO:

- I. Celebrating Black cultural history by restoring the Excelsior Club's legacy
- 2. Establishing a destination that benefits the community for decades to come

COMMUNITY IMPACT FEATURES:

- I. Central Museum celebrating the Excelsior legacy and African-American entrepreneurs in Charlotte
- 2. Live music performances by local artists
- 3. Modern Juke Joint with health-forward American cuisine
- 4. Second-chance hiring for individuals facing employment barriers
- 5. Community Gathering Space
