1. Naturally Occurring Affordable Housing Preservation Proposals

Staff Resource(s):

Warren Wooten, Housing and Neighborhood Services
Michael Englehart, Housing and Neighborhood Services

Explanation

In 2024, the city issued a rolling Naturally Occurring Affordable Housing (NOAH) Acquisition, Rehabilitation and Subsidy Request for Proposals (RFP) to provide gap funding for the preservation and rehabilitation of NOAH communities in the city. The rolling RFP allows the city to evaluate proposals on a rolling basis and allows developers to be responsive to quickly changing market conditions. The Committee will receive information and staff evaluation of two recent proposals received in response to the rolling RFP.

Action: Information and Action if Desired

2. 2024 Housing Bond Closeout

Staff Resource(s):

Rebecca Hefner, Housing and Neighborhood Services

Explanation

The Committee will review the Housing Trust Fund remaining balance from the 2024 housing bond, and alignment with the current funding allocations established in the Affordable Housing Funding Policy.

Action: Discussion and Action if Desired.
