

Ordinance – Reginald Armistice Hawkins House

Ordinance designating as an Historic Landmark a property known as the “Reginald Armistice Hawkins House” (listed under Tax Parcel Number 07839808 as of February 1, 2019, and including the interior and exterior of the house, all landscape features, and the land associated with the tax parcel). The property is located at 1703 Madison Avenue in Charlotte, North Carolina, and is owned by Jeffrey Michael Neff and Samantha C. Taylor.

WHEREAS, all of the prerequisites to the adoption of this ordinance prescribed in Chapter 160A, Article 19, as amended, of the General Statutes of North Carolina have been met; and

WHEREAS, the members of the City Council of Charlotte, North Carolina, have taken into full consideration all statements and information presented at a public hearing held on the 18th day of February 2019, on the question of designating a property known as the Reginald Armistice Hawkins House as an historic landmark; and

WHEREAS, the members of the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Historic Landmarks Commission have taken into full consideration all statements and information presented at a public hearing held on the 11^h day of February, 2019 on the question of designating a property known as the Reginald Armistice Hawkins House as an historic landmark; and

WHEREAS, the Reginald Armistice Hawkins House is significant for its association with Reginald Armistice Hawkins, Charlotte's most outspoken and persistent activist during the Civil Rights movement of the 1950s – 1960s; and

WHEREAS, Reginald Armistice Hawkins House was one of four homes of Charlotte Civil Rights leaders that were bombed in 1965; and

WHEREAS, During the decades that Hawkins resided at 1703 Madison Avenue, from the early 1950s into the 1980s, he did much to reshape race relations in Charlotte. His impact was felt far from the Queen City, as well – directly in his work to open North Carolina medicine to all, in his education lawsuit that ended North Carolina's discriminatory Pearsall Plan, and in his participation in Swann – and indirectly in the headlines that his activism generated year after year in the national press; and

WHEREAS, Charlotte-Mecklenburg Historic Landmarks Commission has demonstrated that the property known as the Reginald Armistice Hawkins House possesses special significance in terms of its history, and/or cultural importance; and

WHEREAS, the property known as the Reginald Armistice Hawkins House is owned by Jeffrey Michael Neff and Samantha C. Taylor.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED by the members of the City Council of Charlotte, North Carolina:

1. That the property known as the “Reginald Armistice Hawkins House” (listed under Tax Parcel Number 07839808 as of February 1, 2019, and including the interior and exterior of the house, all landscape features, and the land associated with the tax parcel) is hereby designated as an historic landmark pursuant to Chapter 160A, Article 19, as amended, of the General Statutes of North Carolina. The location of said landmark is noted as being situated at 1703 Madison Avenue,

Charlotte, Mecklenburg County, North Carolina. Features of the property are more completely described in the “Survey and Research Report on the Reginald Armistice Hawkins House” (2018).

2. That said exterior and interior are more specifically defined as the historic and structural fabric, especially including all original exterior and interior architectural features and the contours of landscaping.

3. That said designated historic landmark may be materially altered, restored, moved or demolished only following issuance of a Certificate of Appropriateness by the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Historic Landmarks Commission. An application for a Certificate of Appropriateness authorizing the demolition of said landmark may not be denied, except if such landmark is judged to be of State-wide significance by duly authorized officials of the North Carolina Division of Archives and History. However, the effective date of such Certificate may be delayed in accordance with Chapter 160A, Article 19, and amendments thereto, and hereinafter adopted.

4. Nothing in this ordinance shall be construed to prevent or delay ordinary maintenance or repair of any architectural feature in or on said landmark that does not involve a change in design, material or outer appearance thereof, nor to prevent or delay the construction, reconstruction, alteration, restoration, demolition or removal of any such feature when a building inspector or similar official certifies to the Commission that such action is required for the public safety because of an unsafe condition. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the owner of the historic landmark from making any use of the historic landmark not prohibited by other statutes, ordinances or regulations. Owners of locally designated historic landmarks are expected to be familiar with and to follow The Secretary of the Interior’s Standards for Rehabilitation and

Guidelines for Rehabilitating Historic Buildings, the guidelines used by the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Historic Landmarks Commission to evaluate proposed alterations or additions.

5. That a suitable sign may be posted indicating that said property has been designated as an historic landmark and containing any other appropriate information. If the owner consents, the sign may be placed on said historic landmark.

6. That the owners of the historic landmark known as the “Reginald Armistice Hawkins House” be given notice of this ordinance as required by applicable law and that copies of this ordinance be filed and indexed in the offices of the City Clerk, Building Standards Department, Mecklenburg County Register of Deeds, and the Tax Supervisor, as required by applicable law.

7. That which is designated as an historic landmark shall be subject to Chapter 160A, Article 19, of the General Statutes of North Carolina as amended, and any amendments to it and any amendments hereinafter adopted.

Adopted the ____ day of _____, 20____, by the members of the City Council of the City of Charlotte, Mecklenburg County, North Carolina.
