Cooperative Purchasing Exemption

NC S.L. 2001-328, effective January 1, 2002, authorizes competitive group purchasing.

Explanation

- Initial assessments for this contract will include seven City-owned cultural venues, including Blumenthal Performing Arts Center and Mint Museum Randolph, totaling one million square feet.
- The facility assessments will provide a facility condition index through the evaluation of the condition and life expectancy of building systems and equipment, such as HVAC, electrical, and plumbing.
- The facility condition assessments include energy audits, which will provide recommendations for future upgrades to reduce energy consumption and lower carbon emissions.
- Dude Solutions, Inc. will collect facility data and use a capital forecasting tool to estimate costs and plan for building system and equipment replacements across the lifespan of City-owned facilities.
- Dude Solutions, Inc. has a contract awarded through Sourcewell that offers competitively obtained contracts to public agencies nationwide for facilities capital planning, including key performance indicators, resources, and technologies.
- Annual expenditures are estimated to be $250,000.

Charlotte Business INclusion
