Explanation

- The Charlotte Douglas International Airport Opportunity Scholarship (Scholarship) will provide financial assistance to students who are enrolling in an associate’s degree at Central Piedmont Community College (CPCC).
- As part of the Scholarship, each student will receive tuition payment, school supplies, including a notebook computer, and the opportunity for a paid summer internship at the Airport between their first and second year of study.
- The Aviation Department is participating in the Opportunity Scholarship Program to develop the workforce for Aviation, and create economic opportunities in Charlotte. The program will benefit students who are graduates of CMS high schools on the west side of Mecklenburg County and Title I eligible.
- The CPCC Foundation will oversee management of the Scholarship to include providing an annual report to the City for review purposes.
- The Aviation Department estimates the proceeds to be approximately $20,000 annually.
