Police Motorcycle Lease

Action:

Authorize the City Manager to negotiate a unit price contract with The Bancorp, Inc. for the lease of BMW motorcycles for the term of three years.

Staff Resource(s):

Kerr Putney, Police
Nathan King, Police

Explanation

- The Charlotte-Mecklenburg Police Department (CMPD) currently leases 11 motorcycles primarily for traffic enforcement tasks.
- An evaluation was conducted by the CMPD Motorcycle and Accident Reconstruction Unit and based on departmental needs, BMW was chosen as the new model.
- A short term lease was executed in July 2018 for six months.
- BMW Motorcycles of Charlotte submitted the supplemental lease agreement administered through The Bancorp, Inc.
- The current lease for the motorcycles expires September 2018. At that time, CMPD plans to lease 10 new 2018 BMW RTPs for a term of three years to replace the current motorcycles in the department.
- The lease also includes a three year, 60,000 mile warranty, and annual expenditures are estimated at $93,580.
