John Reibold, Police

Explanation

- The Charlotte-Mecklenburg Police Department (CMPD) has been invited to apply for a North Carolina Governor’s Highway Safety Program grant for the Driving While Impaired (DWI) Task Force. This is an annual opportunity which has been granted for the past ten years.
- The terms of the grant require that City Council adopt a resolution authorizing CMPD to apply for and accept the grant funding.
- The total cost for the DWI Task Force, made up of six officers and one sergeant, is projected to be $750,265 in FY 2024. The grant will fund 25 percent of Task Force costs ($187,566). The city will provide at 75 percent match ($562,699) from CMPD’s operating budget.
- The grant is for a one-year term from October 1, 2023 through September 30, 2024.
